

Messages

- A simple way students can ask follow-up questions about a JogNog quiz
- Encourages collaborative learning, participation and critical thinking
- Teacher can see where students need help
- Students can interact with teacher, reflect and share insights

1 Successfully complete a quiz

2 Type your message and click the “Praise me” button to receive a reward and post your question to the class and the teacher of the class

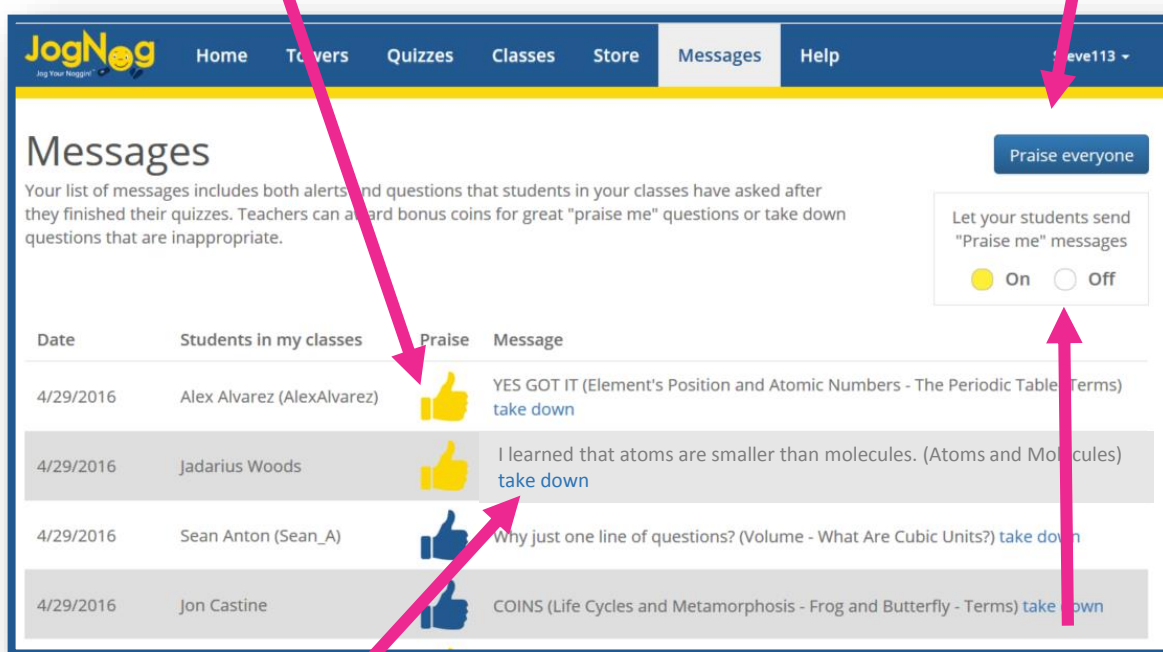

Contact us at support@jognog.com with any questions

3

To see the student questions, click on the MESSAGES tab. Only the teacher and the students in the class can see the questions.

Teacher can award bonus coins to an individual student who has contributed a great message

Teacher can award bonus coins to all students that have contributed messages

The question's author or teacher can remove a question after it is posted

Teacher can turn off this feature for all of their classes

Congratulations!

You can now use JogNog's "Praise me" Messages feature to build critical thinking skills and to create communication and discussion about the content within JogNog quizzes.